ELLEFORDS MEET WITH ROUSING RECEPTION AT THE ORPHEUM

As was expected the Ellefords met with a rousing reception at the Orpheum last evening, the house being packed to overflowing and the "standing room only" sign placed on the box office early.

Their opening piece was happily selected and pleased all. The Man of Mystery, is a thrilling melodrama full of exciting situations and laughable positions interspersed with some good specialties in which Baby Lillian and Little Evelyn, the children who won so many friends by their cleverness on their last visit, and Miss Ada Lucas appeared well, while True Boardman, a ragtime singer and dancer, made a hit with a new coon song. From the acting of every member of the company appearing last night it is easy to see that they have been working together a long time and they all showed a familiarity with their lines.

From the start to finish there was not a hitch in anything, and Manager Elleford and Tom Bates are to be complimented upon the selection of the Man of Mystery for an opener. The piece will be given Monday and Tuesday evenings and on Wednesday "The Girl I Left Behind" will be played. The sale of seats for the second play is already large and as the plays will be changed three times a week the interest in the shows will not have a chance to lag.

Theater Party Organized By the 1902 Club

The 1902 Club had a very successful theater party to witness the performance at the Orpheum last night. The members of the Club met at the quarters on the corner of Miller and Boretania street whence they marched two by two to the Orpheum where a whole section divided off by ribbons in the Club colors, gold and blue, awaited them. All those who participated were gaily decked out with leis and flowers and during the performance the lady members of the troupe were the recipients of bouquets accompanied by cards presenting the compliments of the Club. The members of the troupe who received floral tributes were: Miss Claire Washington, Miss May Powers, Miss Lucas, Miss Cummings, Baby Lillian, Little Lorie, Alleen Wallace. After the performance the party adjourned to the Elite Ice Cream parlors where light refreshments were partaken of. The members of the Club present were as follows: P. C. Buzzell, Esq., E. G. SAILOR'S BODY IN THE WATER

Last night another body was found floating in the harbor of this city, but this time it is very unlikely that any mystery is connected with it. The body is that of a native sailor named Waikapu. It was found near the Oceanic dock by a boatman named Andrew Kanara. He, together with another boatman, towed the body to the boatlanding. The police were informed at once and the body was taken to the morgue. The body does not show the slightest sign of violence and does not seem to have been in the water for a very long time. It is supposed by the police that the man fell overboard while in a state of intoxication and thus met his death by drowning.

A VALLEJO MIRACLE

Bright's Disease and Diabetes Are Positively Curable.

[San Francisco Examiner.]

J. J. Carey is well known in Vallejo. Three months ago he was sent home from one of San Francisco's largest hospitals as incurably ill with Diabetes, the physicians in charge telling him he could not recover. His sister thereupon came down to this city to investigate the Fulton treatment, with the result that she took back with her the Diabetic Compound and put him on it. Having exhausted the hospital's efforts before considering the Fulton Compound, he was in such an extreme condition we feared to give her too much hope, simply saying it was still possible for him to recover, notwithstanding the apparently hopeless outlook. As further supplies of the Compound were procured up there, we lost track of the case. On Tuesday of last week (March 11) Carey himself walked into our office and told us he was the man who could not recover. Said he: "My thirst is all gone, the parched throat troubles me no longer, the palpitation has disappeared. I am sleeping like a boy, and am up and around again as usual and getting better and stronger every day. I now believe you can cure Diabetes, and you have my permission to use my name anywhere." (Note.—This is the second incurable case from this same hospital we have taken within three months and put on the road to recovery, the other being a case of Bright's Disease.)

Medical works agree that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are incurable, but 87 per cent are positively recovering under the Fulton Compound. (Common forms of kidney complaint offer but short resistance.) Price, $1 for the Bright's Disease and $1.50 for the Diabetic Compound. John J. Fulton Co., 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco, sole compounders.

The Fulton Compound can be procured of

MAILE ILIMA CLUB HAS A HIGH JINKS

The Maile Ilima Club had "high jinks" in the rooms of the club Friday night. Singing and some bouts with the gloves were the principal amusements. Dan Renear and McDuffy first stood up against each other. No decision was given, the contestants being pretty evenly matched. E. Stratemeyer next faced Sam Chillingworth. In this bout Chillingworth had the best of his opponent. The last bout was between H. Chilton and Robert Clark. As in the first, no decision was given and the affair was a pretty even draw. Clark had his thumb hurt slightly by hitting his opponent with an open hand.

The Maile Ilima Quilnet Club rendered the music and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all who attended.

CHILLINGWORTH'S SUCCESSFUL RAIDS

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was abroad again last night and as usual succeeded in capturing a few of those who sin in dark places. Accompanied by some of his officers the Deputy Sheriff went to a house on Liliha street, right back of the lane which runs mauka of Vineyard street. This house has for some time been suspected by Chillingworth as being an immoral place and the raid made upon it was eminently successful, two Japanese women and a man, being caught flagrant delicto.

Next the Deputy Sheriff turned his attention to a cottage in Iwilei just near the rice mill which he had under suspicion for the same reason. For an hour did the patient deputy lie on a roof opposite watching the house. The cold and wet made the watch a very disagreeable one but at last his patience was rewarded and another guilty couple were taken to the station house.

The rest of last night's arrests included one common nuisance; one heedless driving and six drunks.
